

please do nothing to weaken indianas existing law. how can anyone justify unwanted intrusion into their privacy? Who's best interest is the FCC acting in? obviously the phone companies and telemarketers are well represented in your logic. a 'no-call' list is a clear message.